

bikebiz

at the heart of the cycle industry

BikeBiz is passionate about the whole spectrum of the bike industry, from e-bikes to infrastructure, and covers all the essential aspects needed for those in the cycle industry to stay informed.

From breaking news, product updates, and marketing messages, to industry issues and financial markets, BikeBiz is essential reading for those in the cycle industry, from the workshop to senior executives.

Our magazine is read by more than 2,700 opted-in subscribers, alongside our database of 3,300 newsletter subscribers, and our website reaches up to 115,000 unique readers per month, while our jobs board helps fill dozens of cycle industry jobs every month.

Here's what we do

Inform

BikeBiz exists to inform those in the cycle industry about the latest job openings, products, developments and important issues. Whether you want to launch a new component or bike, let readers know about changes to your business, or create awareness around your brand, we can help hit the key audience within the cycle industry.

Create

To help you reach the widest audience, we can support you to create bespoke campaigns and content, helping you deliver maximum impact for your business. Whether through ad campaigns, advertorial content, or online marketing, the BikeBiz team can help create content that inspires.

Boost

With our significant reach and contacts within the cycle industry, we can help amplify your message out to the cycle industry. Thanks to our expanding social media following across multiple platforms, and our 2,700+ strong database opted-in mailing list subscribers, BikeBiz is perfectly placed to help hit those key bike trade audiences.

BikeBiz delivers an extensive online offering, maximising value for advertisers as well as fast, innovative platforms delivering you the latest breaking news through special features, business analysis, social media and a whole host of up-to-the-minute content.

Simply put, BikeBiz is the one-stop information destination for anyone working in the bike trade.
